

OPENING OF SCHOOL

Prof. Knight Resigns From the High School.

GOES TO KANSAS CITY

Supt. Dyer Issues Instructions For Entrance.

Prof. J. M. Knight, who has had charge of the department of mathematics in the city high school for the last six years, has resigned and left last night for Kansas City, where he takes charge of a similar department in the Kansas City high school.

Prof. Knight has been a teacher in Wichita for eleven years, during which time he has made hundreds of the warmest friends and a reputation for superior methods as an instructor.

His place has been filled though the board of education has not announced the name of the gentleman who is to become his successor.

School opens next Monday. It is estimated by competent authority that it will take $5,000 worth of the new Pop school books to supply the pupils for the first month in all the grades of all the schools in the city, or 25 per cent more than for any first month of school in the history of the city heretofore. The books in use last year are so nearly gone to pieces that they cannot be passed to pupils coming up from a lower grade, as has always been the practice here and in other schools.

Superintendent Dyer has issued some instructions for the first day, which will be of material interest to every pupil and parent in the city:

The grades and boundaries of the districts are the same as last year.

On Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, there will be an examination in all buildings, grades 3 to 8, for delinquents or those who seek advanced standing.

Delinquents will be examined only in the studies of their grade in which they are delinquent.

Examinations for the high school pupils will be held at the high school building at the same hour.

High school pupils will report for enrollment as follows:

Seniors—Room 10.
Juniors—Room 8.
Sophomores—All English course pupils and all Latin course pupils whose names begin with the letters A to H, inclusive, room 5; all Latin course pupils from I to Z, inclusive, room 12.

Freshmen—All English course pupils and Latin course pupils from A to B, inclusive, room 1; Latin course pupils from C to H, inclusive, room 2; Latin course pupils from I to P, inclusive, room 3; Latin course pupils from Q to Z, inclusive, room 4.

Prof. Allen will be at the office of the superintendent of the High School building after 2 o'clock in the afternoon to enroll all new high school students and those entering the freshman class.

LIVE STOCK COMMISSION
Condemned by the Salt Fork Live Stock Association.

The Wichita Union stock yards has all along been very much dissatisfied with the present system of cattle inspection, claiming that the present method defeated its own ends and served to injure the local market. The best interests of Kansas stockmen were not in any manner sustained by this cumbersome and inadequate method, and the Live Stock Exchange has emphatically declared against the whole plan.

The following communication from the Salt Fork Live Stock Association is generally indorsed by the Wichita Union stock yards:

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the meeting of the Salt Fork Live Stock Association in Coldwater, Kan., on September 3, 1938:

Resolved, That we condemn the position of the present Live Stock sanitary commission in reference to admitting cattle into this state from safe territory above the government quarantine line. We call attention to the fact that there is no case on record where cattle from New Mexico or Arizona have transmitted splenic or Texas fever. Therefore we denounce the present system of inspection from such safe territory as a farce and a pretense, wholly to make place for irresponsible parties, not under bond or oath, to be employed at the expense and detriment to cattlemen.

We assert that these parties assume to be guardians of the stock interests and virtually brand those engaged in the stock business as dishonorable and treacherous and incapable of judging and managing their own affairs. The great number of cases of Texas fever for the year 1938 indicates that inspections have been simply a pretense, and the criminal laws in reference

IS IT CURABLE?

A Question Often Asked by Those Afflicted With Piles.
Is a Strained Pile Curable? Is local inflammation curable? Of course, if properly treated, So is piles.

People become afflicted with piles and ask some old "chronic" who has always persisted in the wrong treatment, and naturally he discourages them by telling them that their case is hopeless.

They in turn discourage others, and thus a disease that can in every case be cured by careful and skillful handling is allowed to sap the energy of thousands who might free themselves of the trouble in a few days.

Pyramid Pile Cure will cure the most aggravated case of hemorrhoids in an astonishingly short time. It relieves the congested parts, reduces the tumors instantly no matter how large, allays the inflammation and stops the itching or burning at once.

Thousands who have resorted to expensive surgical treatment have been cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure—in a number of instances persons who had spent months in a hospital under a pile specialist.

It is a remedy that none need fear to apply even to the most aggravated, swollen and inflamed hemorrhoidal tumors.

If you are afflicted with this stubborn disease you can master it, and master it quickly.

This remedy is no longer an experiment, but a medical certainty. It is manufactured by the Pyramid Pile Co. of Marshall, Mich.

Druggists sell it at 50 cents per box. It is becoming the most popular pile cure the country has ever known and druggists everywhere are ordering it for their customers.

Your Eyes or a Million?

Which would you take? If you value the precious gift of sight to it that you keep your eyes strong and healthy. If you suspect any weakness consult us. This will cost you nothing. Many years' practice as a specialist, and the testimony of thousands in this vicinity who have been benefited ought to satisfy you that our diagnosis is safe and reliable.

Every School Child

Who has complained in the least about his eyes should be examined by a competent optician at the beginning of each school term. If parents will follow directions we give them in regard to the care of their children's eyes during their first few years of school life they'll never have to wear glasses until failure begins at 40. We have glasses for sale, but we don't put them on children unless the parents have neglected the little ones so long that it becomes a necessity.

to sanitary regulations have been loosely enforced, as compared with 1937, when one-third more were admitted, and under an entirely different system of admitting, and only two serious outbreaks of fever, and those on cattle admitted by inspectors.

This association is justified in indorsing the position of Hon. Frank Weinschenk and J. W. Johnson for abolishing the system of admitting cattle through inspection. We commend them for procuring release to shipping or driving diseased all those who violated the criminal laws in cattle into the state, and we believe, as they, that the State Live Stock Sanitary commission should be held responsible for its acts, and that it should not shift the responsibility upon inspectors; that if the cattlemen are to be held up the commission should do it.

The great number of cases of fever for this year indicates that irresponsible parties have admitted cattle, and the fact that no criminal prosecution has resulted from the admission of such diseased cattle indicates they are in no position to prosecute violators of the law.

GARRE-M'VAY NUPTIALS

Quiet Wedding of Two Summer County Young People.

Married, by Rev. William Parker, Clearwater, at the residence of Mr. W. H. Dyer, on September 8, 1938, Mr. William C. Garre of Argonia, Summer county, Kansas, and Miss Millie McVay, of the same place. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer prepared a beautiful supper for a select number of friends. Two young ladies, Miss Violet Hamline, of Newkirk, O. T., and Miss Nina Dyer, played the wedding march. It was a pleasant, quiet affair.

CITY IN BRIEF

O. P. Taylor of Johnston-Larimer returned home yesterday.

Mr. H. M. Hart was in Newton yesterday attending to some business affairs.

Miss Agnes Ebbels is home from Omaha, where she attended the exposition.

Miss Lillian Colby of Abilene visited here yesterday with Miss Bertha Livingston.

Rev. Mr. Randall will officiate at St. John's church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

R. C. Noble, of Champaign, Ill., is in the city. Mr. Noble has heavy property interests here.

The average temperature yesterday was 60 degrees. The lowest up to 10 p. m. was 49 degrees.

Negro melodies will take the place of the brass band from the grand stand at the fair—a novel innovation.

Miss Julia Goadyear left yesterday morning for Willow Grove, Col., where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Mrs. Melvina E. Norton died at her late residence, 1225 East Oak street, at 9:30 last night. Notice of funeral will appear later.

Mrs. W. E. Stanley and her daughter, Miss Hattie, are home from an extended trip to Wisconsin and the Omaha exposition.

Judge John A. Williams arrived here yesterday morning from Colorado, where he and his party have been spending the summer.

Ed Dixon, of Argonia, was here yesterday talking for Long and Stanley. He says he thinks Stanley will be elected by 20,000 majority.

Miss Ruby Rank, who has been here from Hillsboro, Kan., visiting with the family of Mr. P. J. Sullivan, left for her home yesterday after a very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Walzemot and daughter, Miss Lizzy Walzemot, of Kansas City, are visiting in the city, guests of daughter and sister, Mrs. Clara Smith, of South Main street.

Prof. Burgess, an honorably discharged regular who was in the San Diego campaign, is visiting his father, a farmer in this county. Prof. Burgess brought back with him a Cuban machete.

The sight of white horses diving off an elevation 50 feet high into a pool of water will be the most thrilling event in the lifetime of a great many. It will be witnessed free every day at the fair.

The annual report of the Johnson heirs was filed in the probate court yesterday. The annual income is $3,000. It is the largest estate now in the court. Mrs. Grace Nevis is the guardian of the minors.

The messes' advertisement the coming fall will have all the words of praise from thousands of school children who attend on Tuesday, September 26—children's day. They will see it all, free, the biggest and best show they ever saw.

The September term of the federal court was in session yesterday, and a considerable batch of routine matter disposed of. Judge Williams appears to be in the best of health and seems even stronger than he was when several months ago. Not many outside attorneys have yet arrived.

Mr. James Guthrie, one of Texas' great cattle kings, is spending a few days in the city and Mr. Oak Davidson is showing him around. Mr. Guthrie is a more than ordinarily intelligent gentleman, who takes an especial interest in the greater economical questions of the times. He has just been down to Kentucky visiting relatives and friends.

TRIED FOR MURDER

tary at the preliminary hearing, did you?"

"No, sir."

"You didn't think anything about it until Mr. Amidon talked to you about it?"

"I never talked to him about it."

"Were you in Mr. Amidon's office to-day?"

"Yes, sir."

"Who went with you?"

"No one."

"Who showed you the way?"

"My father."

"Who was present when you told Mr. Amidon yesterday (Wednesday)?"

"My father, my mother and myself."

By Mr. Amidon:

"You were in my office yesterday for the first time—that is the first time I ever talked to you about the trial?"

"Yes, sir."

F. M. Kirby, the gentleman on whose farm the baby was found, was called to the stand. He described the condition of the baby's head, which had been smashed and all of the brains had oozed out.

W. G. Austin of Derby was asked if he knew Harry Church and replied in the affirmative.

He was told to relate the conversation between him and Church on the night of July 4.

He said: "I told Harry Church to tell the truth and nothing but the truth. Church said that he took the baby away. That the Kleinigsmans had scared him into it. As the old man had threatened to kill him if he didn't. He got up to Steve Bache's place and hearing no sound from the baby he got out and looked at it. There was blood on the baby's mouth. He thought of burying it in the sand but changed his mind. He had started to take the child to the Orphans' Home in Wichita. He then went to the river and let the basket into the river with his halter strap."

"Didn't he say that he was afraid that Kleinigsmans would kill him with a shotgun?"

"Yes, sir."

JOHN KLEINIGSMAN'S STATEMENT.

"How long have you lived in this country?"

"Twenty years."

"Did you see a baby in a basket?"

"Yes, sir."

"Was it alive or dead?"

"It was alive."

"What was done with it?"

"It was given to Mr. Church by my son Louis."

"Did you hear it cry when it was being taken to the buggy?"

"It was making some little fuss."

Cross-examined by Judge Wall.

"Did you say that you would throw the child and your daughter into the road?"

"No, sir. I did not."

"Did you threaten to kill Church?"

"No, sir."

"You swore a good deal?"

"I expect I did."

"Did you refuse to let Church and Mary get married?"

"I didn't want her to get married then. I never said he could not marry her."

Louis Kleinigsmans and his mother were both put on the stand, but their evidence was the same as others for them.

Court was then adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock, when other witnesses will testify. The state has already rested. The case will unquestionably go to the jury before night.

BASIL STETLER IS DEAD

After Four Days He Succumbed to the Disaster of Monday

Basil Stetler, after painful and patient suffering, is dead. The words will fall on many a sympathetic ear this morning, immediate friends and many more who in Wednesday morning's Eagle read with sincere pity the story of his tragedy and his untimely end. On Monday he was shot accidentally by his own shotgun while at Peabody, and the next day was conveyed to this city and to the City hospital for an operation in the vain and desperate hope of saving his life. Last evening, after acute and mute suffering, the poor unfortunate died, at 5:30, surrounded by his grief-stricken parents, his little brother and friends of the family. Death in any form must bring a shock and a heartache to loved ones, but the woe and sorrow is seemingly doubly bitter and horrifying when it comes in such a terrible manner. A dutiful son, a loving brother, a bright, intelligent and ambitious boy, a mere child, is cut down in his early teens, just on the threshold of a promising career, and the midnight blackness of undying gloom settles down like a pall on a once happy household. For Basil Stetler the great game of life is all over, when he had just begun to taste the sweetness of young and hopeful life. "He gives life and he takes it away." Unfathomable as the sea, perplexing and strange, sometimes seem the unaccountable sequences of life and fate. Many friends in this city extend to the broken parents all the consolation and cheer which earnest sympathy can know, and willing hands and anxious hearts are ready to go out to and for them in the hour of their acute grief. This afternoon from 3 o'clock until 7, Basil's friends will have the opportunity of seeing the remains at the undertaking parlor of L. W. Gail in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stetler will take the remains to Wellington over the Rock Island for interment.

Butterworth's Story of America.
The Werner company (Akron, O.), announce for immediate publication "The Story of America," by H. E. Butterworth.

It is a compact history of the United States from the earliest time to the signing of the peace protocol concluding our war with Spain.

The importance of the work is derived from two elements: the timeliness of the book, and its distinguished author. He is an author of established and increasing reputation. He is everywhere known from his quarter-of-a-century's connection with The Youth's Companion, as editor; from his delightful stories of travel, "The Zigzag Journeys"; his vivid portrayal of early New England life; his charming stories eagerly sought by the editors of leading magazines; his patriotic poems; his relations with educational movements, the kindergarten, the Red Cross society, the Peace association. To want more local hands could the work of producing a short, readable, authentic history of the discovery of the western world, the early struggles, growth, setbacks and prosperity of our nation have been confided? Who is capable of turning to better advantage the work of an educational movement, who could make of the history of this republic a stronger plea for patriotism, freedom and education?

Old and young alike will read the book with equal interest and profit. Parents can safely place it in the hands of their children with the knowledge it will instruct, entertain, inspire and enhance their reading.

On whose shoulders will soon be resting the tremendous responsibility of conducting, for better or for worse, the affairs of this republic.

Cloth, 8vo, 700 pages, illustrated, price $1.50.
